Quinn Johnson is a Partner and the General Counsel at Reichman Jorgensen Lehman & Feldberg LLP (RJLF). Recognized for her unique blend of trial acumen and comprehensive in-house experience, Quinn has more than 20 years of experience focusing on a broad range of complex commercial litigation.

Prior to joining RJLF, Quinn served as the Vice President and Deputy General Counsel at Arconic Corporation, an industrial powerhouse specializing in the engineering and manufacturing of lightweight metals. She acted as a regular advisor to the CEO and Board, managing a portfolio encompassing thousands of cases, from high-stakes commercial disputes and product liability litigation to international arbitration matters and securities litigation. Her responsibilities also included crisis response, intellectual property protection, mergers and acquisitions, government relations, as well as adeptly managing risk, conducting corporate investigations, and ensuring corporate compliance. As the global co-chair of Arconic's Women's Network, Thrive, she spearheaded educational and recruiting initiatives.

Quinn also spent nearly a decade as a trial lawyer at Meyer Unkovic & Scott, LLP, representing companies in all phases of commercial litigation including cases involving commercial disputes, breach of contract, insurance coverage, intellectual property, product liability, and employment matters.

A magna cum laude graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, Quinn was the recipient of the Moritz Fellowship. Beyond her professional achievements, she also actively contributes to her community through her leadership role on the Board of The Children's Museum of Pittsburgh.
